

2011 Concert Series

The Tuxedo Performing Arts Group is pleased to announce the lineup of performances for its 6th season of bringing entertainment to the Tuxedo community.

February 5 — I've Got a Little Twist

The Tuxedo Club

Featuring the New York Gilbert & Sullivan Players. It's where The Mikado meets The Music Man. Where the HMS Pinafore sets sail for Brigadoon. Where The Pirates of Penzance take shore leave On the Town. Life is a cabaret and so is this show—and as we all know, it's always more entertaining when you add a little twist.

April 30 — The Parnas/Kohlberg Trio

Tuxedo Park private home

Madalyn Parnas, violin; Cicely Parnas, cello; and Yaron Kohlberg, piano. These three charismatic young artists are winning rave reviews and international acclaim. They return to Tuxedo Park for another exciting performance.

June 4 — The Tree of Life

St. Mary's Episcopal Church

Featuring Richard Kimball, composer/piano and Jody Weatherstone, soprano with a 7-piece classical / jazz ensemble . World premiere of Kimball's major work, 'Paris 1911', as well as his chamber arrangement of 'Knoxville 1915' .

November 19 — West Point Cadet Glee Club

Tuxedo Park School

A sixty-voice mixed chorus whose members serve as musical ambassadors for West Point and rank among our nation's most prestigious college choirs.
